

The Law Offices of C. Valerie Ibe

The Law Offices of C. Valerie Ibe, Inc., located in West Hills, California has licenses to practice in the States of California and New York and is equipped to help residents of these states to face the complexities of civil litigation whether in the state courts or in federal courts. The lead attorney, in addition to legal qualifications has also an MBA in Business Administration and a CPA. The firm has extensive knowledge of legal practice in Africa particularly Nigeria.

Practice areas include Formation of Corporations (domestic and foreign), Company taxes and business litigation, taxation, estate planning, ERISA and employee benefits, immigration and naturalization cases among others. The firm is committed to the creation for the corporate and individual client, a legal and financial environment where the firm's educational expertise, preparation and a commitment to excellence can contribute to the realization of the client's goals.